Who we are

The Suburban Symphony is a Beachwood-based community orchestra serving the greater Cleveland area since 1955 with a mission to provide free concerts to the community and provide performance opportunities for community musicians from all walks of life.

Amazing Music - Free for Everyone!

Our five free concerts attract over 300 people, right in your neighborhood. Our regulars come to hear the symphonic masterworks and to discover lesser known gems. Exceptional soloists and innovative programming continue to bring in new audiences.

Young Soloists Competition!

Our popular concerto competition attracts the top young talent in NE Ohio, many of whom have gone on to prominent careers in professional music. This concert introduces our orchestra to new audiences who come to see and support our winners.

Family and Community Concerts!

Fun, family friendly programming and collaborations with local schools attract young families and broaden our outreach. Community concerts highlight partnerships with other local performing arts groups resulting in larger audiences, greater name recognition and fresh eyes to our performances.

Why Advertise with Us

We help you connect with hundreds of music loving patrons, right in your neighborhood and we are constantly looking for ways to expand our audiences. Since we don't charge admission, almost of all our funding comes from community support and we could not exist without sponsors like you.
